Terms and Conditions:

If you have any allergies, you must notify Meals on Wheels of Horry County, Inc. (MOWHC) prior to making an order. If you are a current customer, and discover that you have an allergy, or develop an allergy, you must notify us immediately. Failure to notify MOWHC of new allergies will limit our liability for any and all damages. Failure to notify MOWHC of existing allergies will absolve MOWHC of all liability for damages. The eight most common food allergens are as follows: milk, eggs, peanuts and tree nuts (such as almonds, cashews, and walnuts), fish (like bass, cod, flounder), shellfish (including crab, lobster, and shrimp), soy and wheat. Please be advised that some meals may contain these allergens and also contain the no-calorie sweetener, stevia. If you're allergic to any of these items, you should know that we prepare foods in our kitchens with these ingredients, and while we make every effort not to do so, we cannot guarantee that there won't be any cross contamination with your other meals. Food allergy reactions can range from mild to severe. If you have any food allergies we advise you to exercise extreme caution when ordering from MOWHC. If you have moderate to severe allergies we cannot recommend MOWHC for you. If you have any questions regarding your food allergy.

Food Storage.

MOWHC accepts no responsibility for damages related to meals that have been improperly stored. After meals are delivered they should be refrigerated promptly. Failure to promptly refrigerate meals will absolve MOWHC of any liability or responsibility for damages related to meals that have been improperly stored after delivery.

Once the food has left MOWHC Kitchen, I acknowledge that MOWHC and any churches involved in delivery will not be held responsible for any outcome with the meals I receive, this includes but not limited to, sickness, virus and/or health related issues related to this free crisis service.
